Petersburg Is Coming Next Saturday

Wrangell is going to have a big time next Saturday night and Sunday according to plans of the Athletic Club. The Petersburg baseball team, the band and orchestra, with a large attendance of "rooters" from that city are expected here Saturday afternoon and a big dance will be given in the Rink in the evening at which the orchestra will furnish the music. The Petersburg Orchestra is composed of nine pieces and a good time is assured all, so everyone wants to be on deck and lets give the visitors a good time.

Sunday afternoon the Wrangell boys and the Petersburg boys will cross bats on the local grounds, and owing to the defeat suffered last month by the local team at the hands of the Petersburg boys the Wrangell team are going to make a grand try to even up the score by winning the game. Every body be on hand and boost for the home team.

Charles E. Davidson, secretary of Alaska, reports that vital statistics are coming into his office in better form than formerly. He also states that the birth returns for Gastineau for the months of July and August show thirteen girls to six boys.

Standard Oil To Build Tanks Here

Wrangell will soon have a large Standard Oil station from the appearance of things. Mr. E. M. James, of Los Angeles, Cal., one of representatives of the company is at present in Wrangell for the purpose of looking over several sites for the company. While several options have been taken on different properties no deal has as yet been made but is expected before many days. It is hoped that the company will make satisfactory arrangements and will speedily start work on the tanks, as the plans are to build three large tanks and a warehouse and dock, which will probably mean an expenditure of from fifty to seventy-five thousand dollars.

Fine Yacht Is In Port This Week

The private yacht Ituna, owned by Fred Vogel, of Los Angeles, was in port yesterday. Mr. Vogel and party have spent the past month cruising in Southeastern Alaska and report having a delightful time.

Notice Of Administrator's Sale

It the matter of the Estate of J. W. Gano, Deceased

F. E. Smith, Administrator Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of authority vested in me as the duly and legally appointed and acting Administrator of the above named Estate, and acting on an order duly made and entered on the 8th day of September 1915, by W. G. Thomas, U. S. Commissioner sitting as Judge in Probate directing me to sell all the property belonging to the above named Estate of J. W. Gano, deceased.

On the 18th day of September, 1915, at 2 o'clock P. M. of said day, on the premises, I will sell to the highest and best bidder for cash only all the property belonging to said Estate, same being known as the Wrangell Shingle Mill property and all appurtenances thereunto belonging.

An itemized list of said property can be seen either at the U. S. Commissioners Office, Wrangell, or at my Home, and will also be on exhibition on the day of the sale.

Dated at Wrangell, Alaska, this 8th day of September 1915.

F. E. SMITH, Administrator of the Estate of J. W. Gano, Deceased.

Oscar Carlson Is Victim Of Knife Attack

One of the most dastardly crime that has been committed in Wrangell in a long time happened last Tuesday evening when Mr. Oscar Carlson, the well known dray man, was attacked by a Mexican near the Electric Light plant and was stabbed with a knife in the face. It seems that Mr. Carlson was driving his wagon towards the shingle mill when he met a party of seven Mexicans who being intoxicated stopped his horse and told him to come and have a drink with them or else he would have to fight. Mr. F. E. Smith who was coming from the shingle mill came up at that time and told the Mexicans to go on about their business and it seems that while he was talking to the party one of the number slipped around behind him and as Mr. Carlson stepped down from the wagon he struck at him with a knife. The knife entered his right cheek in front of the ear and with a down stroke laid it wide open to the chin. Mr. Smith turned in time to see the Mexican strike Mr. Carlson and ran up to him and with the help of Mr. Edison put him on the dray and drove him home where he was attended by Dr. Pigg. The authorities were notified and went out to find the party but could only find one who is now in jail, although he is not the man who did the cutting, and they are today searching for him at the Alaska Packers Association cannery.

The crime has called forth a strong feeling here and the Council held a meeting last night and appointed a committee to work with the authorities in an effort to rid the community of the undesirable and bring the guilty parties to justice.

Marshal Wallace Is Making Trip Outside

Marshal Wallace is expected home from the south on the next boat where he went to take an insane man to the asylum at Mt. Tabor. Mr. Lynch of the Wrangell Hotel is making the trip south and return with him.

Walter E. Cochran, for six years agent for the United States bureau of education at Mountain Village, Alaska, 100 miles from the mouth of the Yukon river, is touring the States with an Alaska lecture, illustrated with lantern slides. He expects to interest Eastern congressmen in the appropriation of more money for educational work in Alaska. According to Mr. Cochran, there are only men north of "52." Women form one of the great needs of the country.

The Southeastern Alaska excursion season is over for 1915. The travel was without doubt the greatest in the history of the country.

Mayor and Mrs. Grant Away On Vacation

Mayor and Mrs. Grant will leave on the Princess tomorrow afternoon bound for Mr. Grant's old home in Nova Scotia for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Grant will take the Princess to Prince Rupert and from there will go over the Grand Trunk route to the east. This is Mr. Grant's first visit to his boy-hood home in fifteen years and they expect to be away about two months. We wish you a bon-voyage.

Falls From Bicycle And Hurts Leg

Buster Grant had the misfortune to fall from a bicycle on which he was riding last Monday and severely cut his leg. He was attended to by Dr. Pigg and from all reports will be out and around again in a few days.

Imitation is the sincerest flattery and the Steamships of the Canadian Pacific advertise an excursion trip as being "Almost as good as Alaska."

A good show at the Photoshow tonight.

Some Fine Apples Grown In Wrangell

"Alaska grown apples" is something that we may see advertised in the next few years according to several local growers. Mr. D. Sinclair has several on exhibition at his store, one of which measures eleven inches around, and is well filled out and beautifully colored. Another man who is also proudly showing his fruit is Mr. Ed. Webber who has three different kinds of apples and the Editor had the pleasure of eating several of them last Tuesday, and we can safely state that we never tasted a finer apple. While Wrangell has had an exceptional amount of sunshine this summer, many local weather men who have watched the change for years are of the opinion that each summer hereafter is going to be better as for some unknown reason the climate of Alaska is slowly changing for the better.

Skagway's fourth annual Horticultural Fair and Industrial Exhibition was held on Saturday, September 4th., one week earlier than previously announced.

John Zug, assistant engineer for the government road commission of Alaska, is quoted as having said that the bridge across Mendenhall river will be built this fall.

Printing Point Does Not Bob Up and Down

In an L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter the point on the paper which is to receive the type impression is stationary at the instant the type hits. The carriage does not bob up and down when the shift is made to write capitals.

Why?

Because the type is shifted—not the carriage.

The only movement of the carriage is back and forth on its closely adjusted ball bearing runways—and this does not take place while the print is being made. There is no lifting of the carriage.

This is one reason why L. C. Smith & Bros. type-writing is free from blurs and every letter in the right place.

THE MAN UP TOWN SAYS

"Funny how hard coal or hard wood will soften a hard winter."

What Eastern Papers Say Of Coming Alaska Celebration

(From New York Evening Sun of Aug. 12, 1915)

"ALASKA NEXT"

After the San Francisco Panama-Pacific Exposition the Alaska Exposition. And more than that, it is to be an All-Alaska Exposition. Properly speaking, it is to be a chain of celebrations in all of the cities in the territory, the idea being that the tourist will be put on a sort of exposition circuit and shown all of the wonders and resources of the country in succession.

Juneau, Skagway, Wrangell, Fairbanks and Ketchikan are all working enthusiastically in partnership and without the slightest jealousy to evolve such a plan, according to advices from Seattle, which, as the principal handler of the tourist stream to the Northwest country is pushing the idea along for all it is worth through its Chamber of Commerce.

Already the year 1917 has been selected for the event, as it will be the fiftieth anniversary year of the acquisition of Alaska as a territory by the United States. The exact date will be some time in early summer, still to be determined. As no pretentious Towers of Jewels or exposition palaces are to be constructed the date is of no special importance. The Alaskans will let their mountains and forests present their wonders for themselves.

In fact this celebration is being conceived as more than a show. Especial effort is to be made to attract visitors who may settle in the fertile valleys and share in the development of a country that is destined to make many of its citizens wealthy. There is to be an earnest effort to awaken the people of the States to the fact that Alaska is not a half frozen land with gold as its only attraction. And in so far as this semi-centennial celebration may accomplish a useful purpose it will be more worth while than the ephemera White Cities whose uses and populations vanish in a night.

A good show at the Wrangell Photoshow tonight.

The Winitred arrived down from up the river last Tuesday.

Mr. Thomas Tamase is having a new roof put on his home on 1st street this week.

Mr. F. E. Bleyman, of Seattle, spent Sunday with Mr. & Mrs. John E. Worden and family.

The Alaska Packers' cannery tug Chilkat made a trip to Juneau this week. She was on business for the A. association.

Mayor and Mrs. Grant held open house last Saturday night and gave a good time dance in the hotel. A good crowd attended and an enjoyable time was had.

Manager Richmond of the Photoshow, has announced that in the near future he will change the name of that popular picture house from the Photoshow to "The Rex."

Manager C. C. Harris was in from Santa Ana the first of the week and reports that the cannery has up her full pack and everything is ready for shipment south.

Leonard Campbell returned on the City of Seattle Tuesday from a trip to the south. Leonard reports having a good time on his vacation and leaving his mother much improved in health.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Neill at the Hospital early Wednesday morning. The young lady weighed seven pounds and is doing fine. Capt. Neill is going to send out a boat load of cigars and smiles this week.

While playing in the ball game last Sunday Wm. Lewis, in throwing a ball, accidentally wrenched his arm and in consequence has been making frequent trips to the Dr.'s office. Although the member is very painful it is rapidly getting better.

The big cannery ship "Star of Greenland" with this seasons pack of salmon from the local Alaska Packers Association cannery will be towed out to sea early next Saturday morning on her first leg of the journey to San Francisco.

Marshal Wallace is expected home from the south on the next boat where he went to take an insane man to the asylum at Mt. Tabor. Mr. Lynch of the Wrangell Hotel is making the trip south and return with him.

"The American away from Home" will be the theme of the lecture at St. Philips Church, Sunday evening Sept. 10. Holy Communion with sermon at the morning service.

Juneau will put a tax on the movies.

Mike Piper, a Montenegrin, was killed at the Engineer mine, near Atlin on Sept. 1st., as a result of drilling into a missed hole.

The contract for the construction of the Juneau government hospital for natives has been let to Emi Pohl, a Seattle contractor.

Suits have been filed in the superior court of King county, Washington, by creditors of the defunct Washington-Alaska bank of Fairbanks.

Ward H. Gartner, 17 years old, burglar on the revenue cutter Manning, was drowned in Bering sea August 22. Young Gartner was a native of Seattle and attended the West Seattle school. He joined the United States revenue cutter service in July and was assigned to the Manning. He sailed on his first voyage July 5, so he had been in the service less than two months.

Cordova Times: Col. A. M. Dewey, trustee for the investors in the new Lakina Copper mines, near Strelina, is very optimistic as to the future of this section of Alaska.

His company is getting ready to ship high grade copper ore from the Lakina mines to the smelter at Tacoma. The ore is to be hauled with motor trucks from the mines to the Copper River railway at Long Lake station whence it will be shipped by rail and steamship to Tacoma. It is announced that shipments will commence in October of this year.

The territorial revenue law is working better than its authors believed that it would, according to Territorial Council J. H. Cobb. That it will produce more money than the legislature appropriated is the belief of both Mr. Cobb and Territorial Treasurer Walstein G. Smith. Mr. Cobb thinks the Territorial income from taxes will amount this year to $200,000 or $225,000 which will probably be from $50,000 to $75,000 in excess of the expenditures under the appropriation bills. While Mr. Smith said that he had made no attempt to make any estimate, he thought it likely that Mr. Cobb's figures are not far out of the way.—Juneau Empire.

Ed Webber, an old time prospector and miner, who first went into the Circle City country in 1894 and who prospected in the vicinity of the Klondike in the same year but with poor success as far as finding gold is concerned, came out from the interior Saturday on his way to the Pioneer Home at Sitka. Until he reached Skagway, Mr. Webber had never seen an automobile or entered a moving picture house. Last winter he had the misfortune to freeze the toes of one of his feet and has been unable to do much since, which is the reason for his having consented to enter the home until next spring, when he thinks he will be able to take up his work again.—Alaskan.

Moscow. Moscow is one of the most famous cities in Europe. Exactly 100 years before Napoleon's raid Moscow yielded up to Petersburg—the modern addition "Saint" was unknown to its founder, Peter the Great—the position of capital of the Russian empire, but its geographical situation has enabled it to remain the premier commercial and industrial city. The heart of Moscow is the Kremlin, where the czars are crowned and where may be seen the 875 cannon which Napoleon took to the city and left behind him when forced to retreat with the remnant of his great army. Moscow is 400 miles southeast of Petersburg, with which it is connected by a railway line almost as straight as the crow flies. When Nicholas I. decided the line should be built he drew a straight line on the map between the two cities, and engineers overcame almost incredible difficulties to keep the railway to the route indicated.

Once Upon a Time in France. There was a time in France when a foolish actress who was ambitious enough to want a decoration and so all advised as to make application for it to one of the ministers was punished by imprisonment. It was during the reign of Louis XV., and the first gentleman in waiting of his master wrote this to the governor of the Fort l'Eveque prison:

Dear Sir—Having been informed that Mlle. Clairon has had the goodness and has been mad enough to solicit one of the king's decorations, to which neither her sex nor her profession entitles her, I write you this letter in the name of the King. You are to tell her up in your position of the Fort l'Eveque and make her sufficiently uncomfortable for her to teach her a lesson. Every evening, however, one of your men will have to conduct her to the Comedie Francaise in order that the public shall not be deprived of the pleasure of applauding the talent of this indiscreet woman.

Maybe He Had None. Rex Beach was at the dress rehearsal of one of his plays, and he was there to see that everything was done exactly right. In one scene a member of the cast failed to pull down his cuffs as was stipulated in the stage directions. "Wait one minute!" exclaimed Beach, prancing out to the middle of the stage and interrupting the rehearsal. "Halt right where you are! Haven't I told you to pull down your cuffs? Doesn't the book tell you to pull down your cuffs?" "Yes, sir," said the actor. "Well, you haven't done it," objected the playwright. "Pull them down! Down, down, down! Every gentleman pulls his cuffs down!" "I fear," said the actor coolly, "you go too much on hearsay."

Sunday as It Used to Be in London. Those who object to Sunday amusements sometimes speak as though in bygone times our countrymen were exemplary in their observance of the Sabbath. In 1805, however, a chronicler, quoted by Mr. Nevill in "The Merry Past," estimated that over 200,000 Londoners spent their Sundays in the inns and tea gardens round the metropolis, and the condition of these pleasure seekers at nightfall he calculated to be as follows: Sober, 50,000; in high glee, 90,000; drunkish, 30,000; staggering tipsy, 10,000; muzzy, 15,000; dead drunk, 5,000.—London Spectator.

A Strange Recipe For Acting. Perhaps the most striking instance of voluntary hallucination is that recorded by an intimate friend of the actor Talma. Langlois states that the great tragedian told him that whenever he entered on the stage he was accustomed by force of will to make his brilliant audience disappear and to substitute for them a house full of skeletons. The emotion which these ghastly creatures of his own imagination excited served, he declared, to give additional force to his own impersonations.

Famous Old Colonial Church. St. Michael's, in Charleston, S. C., at the time of its completion in 1761 was the finest church edifice in the United States and one of the very few entirely of masonry construction, including the tower as far as the belfry. It now stands apparently as firm as the day it was dedicated. Work on it was begun in 1752. Like almost all the colonial churches, this one suffered vicissitudes during the Revolutionary war. Its rector was a Tory and was compelled to resign, leaving the church affairs in a somewhat chaotic condition. Materially it suffered through the loss of its leaden roof, which was removed to furnish bullets for the colonial rifles.—Argonaut.

Real Rubies. "Most people are of the impression that the diamond is more valuable than any other jewel stone, but weight for weight the oriental ruby costs many times what the finest diamond of the Kimberley field will bring," said a dealer, who has lately returned from a trip to the East Indies. "For instance, a fine 11 carat ruby sold in London a few years ago for $35,000. An 11 carat diamond in the market would not bring anything like this sum. The smaller sized diamonds and pigeon blood rubies are not so wide apart in price, but real rubies are steadily in the lead in all gem markets."—Chicago News.

What He Thought of Reporters. When Fred Kelly first broke into Cleveland journalism he was put on police. One night he was sent to a big fire down on the flats. A reporter named Brown was sent with him. The fire was a whale, and presently Brown disappeared. A wall had fallen, and Kelly was sure Brown was under it. He rushed to the telephone and called up his city editor. "Say," he shouted into the telephone, "Brown is gone! He's burned up!" "What's that?" asked the city editor. "Brown is burned up, I tell you! He fell into the fire!" "All right," said the city editor, hanging up the telephone. "I'll send another man."—Saturday Evening Post.

Soon Answered. "What do you consider the best diet for a man?" "The best he can afford."—Exchange.
